- 21st January - Cllr Donaldson and I attended a meeting with community groups to understand how TC can be of assistance and how groups can help each other to operate more efficiently for the benefit of all.

Joe Rose
Town Mayor

25/26/254 To receive information from members and proposals for future business
Cllr Donaldson – had reported several pot holes in the area and faulty street lights. He was noted that The Swan had reopened.
Cllr Mantock – enquired about the progress of legal enquiries about the wheelie bin on Ricketts Lane. (still in progress), Bin request for Bath Road (request sent to Dorset Council), If the fire station would be affected by the suggested closures (Cllr Jackson updated that this station would not be closing at present but the service would logistically be affected by the other potential closures.), she also asked if Council could consider an open evening regarding the precept (it was suggested that the open forum at the Annual Town Public Meeting would give an opportunity for residents to ask questions).
Cllr Fraser – Thanked the Grounds Manager for the drone photos of the recent flooding at the town bridge.

The Chair closed the meeting at 8.07pm
